NATIONAL FOUNDATION ON THE ARTS AND THE HUMANITIES

Pursuant to the provisions of Public Law 94-462, the shared staff of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities was abolished and such personnel were assigned either to the National Endowment for the Arts or the National Endowment for the Humanities. As a result, the National Foundation exists only as a legislative "umbrella" for the two separate Endowments, to which all staff currently are assigned. For example, each Endowment now has its own personnel officer and its own general counsel. In 1982, the Institute of Museum Services became the third independent agency under the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities.

SECTION OF THE BUREAU OF THE CENSUS

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
BUREAU OF ECONOMIC ANALYSIS
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20540

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

The District of Columbia is a separate political entity within the United States which serves as the seat of the Federal Government. In addition to its status as the Nation's Capital, Washington, DC, also has its own local governmental structure.

The District of Columbia's elected mayor and 13-member city council govern under a congressional delegation of home rule powers. The home rule charter was approved December 24, 1973, and accepted by the citizens in a referendum held May 7, 1974. Under the U.S. Constitution, the Congress retains ultimate legislative authority over the District of Columbia, and its annual municipal budget still requires House and Senate passage.

Prior to the 1973 Self-Government Act, the District's citizens had been granted the right to vote for the President of the United States (by the XXIII Amendment ratified in 1961). District residents have also elected their school board since 1968 and a nonvoting Delegate to the U.S. House of Representatives since 1970.

On May 29, 1982, the delegates to the District of Columbia Statehood Constitutional Convention adopted a Constitution for the State of New Columbia. The Constitution was approved by the citizens on November 2, 1982. The Constitution must be adopted by a two-thirds majority of both the House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate, and then ratified by three-fourths of the States. If approved, New Columbia will become the 51st State.

The 68.25-square-mile District of Columbia lies at the confluence of the Anacostia and Potomac Rivers on land that was ceded by the State of Maryland. A small portion of the city which had been carved from the Virginia shore of the Potomac was returned to Virginia in 1846, and now the river forms the southwestern boundary of the District.

The site for the city was selected by George Washington. It rises from the lowlands abutting the Potomac River into the hills at the edge of the Maryland counties of Prince Georges and Montgomery. The District of Columbia became the Nation's Capital on December 1, 1800.

In 1802, a small portion of the District was incorporated into the city of Washington, governed by an appointed mayor and elected city council. Ten years later, the city's charter was amended to provide for an elected board of aldermen which, along with the council, selected the mayor. In 1820, the charter was again modified to allow the city of Washington to elect its mayor.

The remainder of the District was divided between the city of Georgetown and county of Washington until June 1, 1871, when the three separate jurisdictions were merged into a single municipality. The consolidated District was under a territorial form of government, headed by a governor and council named by the President.

In 1874, the Congress abolished the territorial government and established a three-member Board of Commissioners appointed by the President. This structure was the predecessor to the present home rule government.

The District's first appointed single Commissioner, Walter E. Washington, was elected to serve as the first mayor of the District of Columbia, taking office on January 2, 1975. The appointed council's vice chairman, Sterling Tucker, was elected chairman of the first elected city council.

In November 1978, the 700,000 citizens of the District of Columbia elected their second mayor, Marion S. Barry, Jr., and council chairman, Arrington Dixon. The Reverend Walter E. Fauntroy was reelected to the seat of nonvoting Delegate to the House of Representatives.

The citizens of the District of Columbia elected Sharon Pratt Dixon (later Sharon Pratt Kelly) as their third mayor in 1990 and also elected John A. Wilson as chairman of the city council. Upon Mr. Wilson's death in 1993, the council's chairman pro tempore, John Ray, was named acting chairman until an election for the chairmanship was held.

Eleanor Holmes Norton was elected Delegate to the House of Representatives in 1990 and was reelected in 1992. With a rule change passed by the House of Representatives in the 103d Congress, the Delegate may vote in the House Chamber when the Representatives have formed into the Committee of the Whole House of the State of the Union.

On November 18, 1994, the citizens of the District of Columbia once again elected Marion S. Barry to serve as their Mayor, taking office on January 3, 1995. David A. Clarke serves as council chairman.

SECURITY COUNCIL

The Security Council is composed of 5 permanent members and 10 nonpermanent members, elected by the General Assembly for 2-year terms. Nonpermanent members are ineligible for immediate reelection. The Members of the Council for 1995 are:

* Original member.

¹ On September 19, 1991, Byelorussia informed the United Nations that it had changed its name to Belarus.

² By resolution 2758 (XXVI) of October 25, 1971, the General Assembly decided "to restore all its rights in the People's Republic of China and to recognize the representatives of its Government as the only legitimate representatives of China to the United Nations, and to expel forthwith the representatives of Chiang Kai-shek from the place they unlawfully occupy at the United Nations and in all the organizations related to it".

³ Czechoslovakia was an original Member of the United Nations from October 24, 1945. In a letter dated December 10, 1992, the Permanent Representative informed the Secretary-General that the Czech and Slovak Federal Republic would cease to exist on December 31, 1992 and that the Czech Republic and the Slovak Republic, as successor States, would apply for membership in the United Nations. The Czech Republic and the Slovak Republic were admitted as Member States on January 19, 1993.

⁵ By letter of January 20, 1965, Indonesia announced its decision to withdraw from the United Nations "at this stage and under the present circumstances". By telegram of September 19, 1966, it announced its decision "to resume full cooperation with the United Nations and to resume participation in its activities". On September 28, 1966, the General Assembly took note of this decision and the President invited the representatives of Indonesia to take seats in the Assembly.

⁶ Formerly Burma.

⁷ The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics was an original Member of the United Nations from October 24, 1945. In a letter dated December 24, 1991, the President of the Russian Federation informed the Secretary-General that the membership of the Soviet Union was being continued by the Russian Federation with the support of the 11 member countries of the Commonwealth of Independent States.

⁸ The General Assembly decided on April 8, 1993 to admit to United Nations membership the State being provisionally referred to for all purposes within the United Nations as "the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia," pending settlement of the difference that had arisen over its name.

⁹ Yemen was admitted to membership in the United Nations on September 30, 1947, and Democratic Yemen on December 14, 1967. On May 22, 1990, the two countries merged to form a single State. Since that time they have been represented as one Member in the United Nations Republic of Yemen.

Permanent Members:

China	Russian Federation	United States
France	United Kingdom

Nonpermanent Members:

Argentina (1995)	Honduras (1996)	Oman (1995)
Botswana (1996)	Indonesia (1996)	Rwanda (1995)
Czech Republic (1995)	Italy (1996)
Germany (1996)	Nigeria (1995)

Presidency

The Presidency of the Security Council, in accordance with its rules of procedure, rotates each month in the English alphabetical orders of the names of the member States.

Military Staff Committee

Composed of the Chiefs of Staff (or their representatives) of the five Permanent Members of the Security Council: China, France, Russian Federation, United Kingdom, and United States. The chairmanship rotates in the alphabetical order as the presidency of the Security Council.

Disarmament Commission

Under the resolution adopted by the General Assembly at its 13th regular session on November 4, 1958, the Disarmament Commission is composed of all the Members of the United Nations. Since 1979, Committee on Disarmament has had a 39-nation membership.

Conference on Disarmament

By General Assembly resolution S-10/2 of June 30, 1978, adopted at its tenth special session, the Conference on Disarmament (then Committee on Disarmament), a negotiating body, is to be composed of 5 nuclear-weapon States (China, France, Russian Federation, United Kingdom, and United States), and 33 other States. At present, there are 38 members participating in the Conference as follows:

Algeria	Hungary	Netherlands
Argentina	India	Nigeria
Australia	Indonesia	Pakistan
Belgium	Iran (Islamic Republic of)	Peru
Brazil	Italy	Poland
Bulgaria	Japan	Romania
Canada	Kenya	Sri Lanka
Cuba	Mexico	Sweden
Egypt	Mongolia	Venezuela
Ethiopia	Morocco	Yugoslavia ¹
Germany	Myanmar	Zaire

TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL

Composed of permanent members of the Security Council. Due to attainment of independence by the last remaining trust territory on October 1, 1994, and full execution by the Trusteeship Council of its 1945 UN Charter mandate, the Trusteeship Council meets only as required.

INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE

The International Court of Justice is the principal organ of the United Nations. All Members of the United Nations are automatically parties to the Statute of the International Court of Justice. Other states may refer cases to the Court under conditions laid down by the Security Council. Except for judicial vacations, the Court is permanently in session at The Hague, Netherlands. Judges are elected by the General Assembly and the Security Council, voting independently, for a term of 9 years and are eligible for reelection.

(All terms expire February 5 of the year designated)

RULES GOVERNING PRESS GALLERIES

1. Administration of the press galleries shall be vested in a Standing Committee of Correspondents elected by accredited members of the galleries. The Committee shall consist of five persons elected to serve for terms of 2 years. Provided, however, that the election in January 1951, the three candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall serve for 2 years and the remaining two for 1 year. Thereafter, three members shall be elected in odd-numbered years and two in even-numbered years. Elections shall be held in January. The Committee shall elect its own chairman and secretary. Vacancies on the Committee shall be filled by special election to be called by the Standing Committee.

2. Persons desiring admission to the press galleries of Congress shall make application in accordance with Rule 34 of the House of Representatives, subject to the direction and control of the Speaker and Rule 33 of the Senate, which rules shall be interpreted and administered by the Standing Committee of Correspondents, subject to the review and an approval by the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration.

3. The Standing Committee of Correspondents shall limit membership in the press galleries to bona fide correspondents of repute in their profession, under such rules as the Standing Committee of Correspondents shall prescribe.

4. Provided, however, that the Standing Committee of Correspondents shall admit to the galleries no person who does not establish to the satisfaction of the Standing Committee all of the following:

(a) That his or her principal income is obtained from news correspondence intended for publication in newspapers entitled to second-class mailing privileges.

(b) That he or she is not engaged in paid publicity or promotion work or in prosecuting any claim before Congress or before any department of the government, and will not become so engaged while a member of the galleries.

(c) That he or she is not engaged in any lobbying activity and will not become engaged while a member of the galleries.

5. Members of the families of correspondents are not entitled to the privileges of the galleries.

6. The Standing Committee of Correspondents shall propose no change or changes in these rules except upon petition in writing signed by not less than 100 accredited members of the galleries.

NEWT GINGRICH,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The above rules have been approved by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

TED STEVENS,

Chairman, Senate Committee on Rules and Administration.

RULES GOVERNING PRESS PHOTOGRAPHERS' GALLERY

1. (a) Administration of the Press Photographers' Gallery is vested in a Standing Committee of Press Photographers consisting of six persons elected by accredited members of the Gallery. The Committee shall be composed of one member each from Associated Press Photos, magazine media, and local newspapers and three "at-large" members. "At large" members may be, but need not be, selected from a media otherwise represented on the Committee.

(b) The term of office of a member of the Committee elected as the Associated Press Photos member, the local newspapers member and one of the "at large" members shall expire on the day of the election held in the first odd-numbered year following the year in which the member was elected, and the term of office of a member of the Committee elected as the magazine media member and the remaining two "at large" members shall expire on the day of the election held in the first even-numbered year following the year in which the member was elected. Whenever two "at large" members are up for election the two candidates with the highest number of votes in that category shall be elected. A member elected to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of a term shall serve for only the unexpired portion of such term.

(c) Elections shall be held as early as practicable in each year, and in no case later than March 31. A vacancy in the membership of the Committee occurring prior to the expiration of a term shall be filled by a special election called for that purpose by the Committee.

(d) The Standing Committee of the Press Photographers' Gallery shall propose no change or changes in these rules except upon petition in writing signed by not less than 25 accredited members of the gallery.

2. Persons desiring admission to the Press Photographers' Gallery of the Senate shall make application in accordance with Rule 33 of the Senate, which rule shall be interpreted and administered by the Standing Committee of Press Photographers subject to the review and approval of the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration.

3. The Standing Committee of Press photographers shall limit membership in the photographers' gallery to bona fide news photographers of repute in their profession and Heads of Photographic Bureaus under such rules as the Standing Committee of Press Photographers shall prescribe.

4. Provided, however, that the Standing Committee of Press Photographers shall admit to the gallery no person who does not establish to the satisfaction of the Committee all of the following:

(a) That any member is not engaged in paid publicity or promotion work or in prosecuting any claim before Congress or before any department of the Government, and will not become so engaged while a member of the gallery.

(b) That he or she is not engaged in any lobbying activity and will not become engaged while a member of the gallery.

The above rules have been approved by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

TED STEVENS,

Chairman, Senate Committee on Rules and Administration.

RULES GOVERNING RADIO AND TELEVISION CORRESPONDENTS' GALLERIES

1. Persons desiring admission to the Radio and Television Galleries of Congress shall make application to the Speaker, as required by rule 34 of the House of Representatives, as amended, and to the Committee on Rules and Administration of the Senate, as required by rule 33, as amended, for the regulation of Senate wing of the Capitol. Applicants shall state in writing the names of all radio stations, television stations, systems, or news-gathering organizations by which they are employed and what other occupation or employment they may have, if any. Applicants shall further declare that they are not engaged in the prosecution of claims or the promotion of legislation pending before Congress, the Departments, or the independent agencies, and that they will not become so employed without resigning from the galleries. They shall further declare that they are not employed in any legislative or executive department or independent agency of the Government, or by any foreign government or representative thereof; that they are not engaged in any lobbying activities; that they do not and will not, directly or indirectly, furnish special information to any organization, individual, or group of individuals for the influencing of prices in any commodity or stock exchange; that they will not do so during the time they retain membership in the galleries. Holders of visitors' cards who may be allowed temporary admission to the galleries must conform to all the restrictions of this paragraph.

2. It shall be prerequisite to membership that the radio station, television station, system, or news-gathering agency which the applicant represents shall certify in writing to the Radio and Television Correspondents' Galleries that the applicant conforms to the foregoing regulations.

3. The applications required by the above rule shall be authenticated in a manner that shall be satisfactory to the Executive Committee of the Radio and Television Correspondents' Galleries who shall see that the occupation of the galleries is confined to bona fide news gatherers and/or reporters of reputable standing in their business who represent radio stations, television stations, systems, or news-gathering agencies engaged primarily in serving radio stations, television stations, or systems. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee of the Radio and Television Correspondents' Galleries to report, at its discretion, violation of the privileges of the galleries to the Speaker or to the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, and pending action thereon, the offending individual may be suspended.

4. Persons engaged in other occupations, whose chief attention is not given to—or more than one-half of their earned income is not derived from—the gathering or reporting of news for radio stations, television stations, systems, or news-gathering agencies primarily serving radio stations or systems, shall not be entitled to admission to the Radio and Television Galleries. The Radio and Television Correspondents' List in the Congressional Directory shall be a list only of persons whose chief attention is given to or more than one-half of their earned income is derived from the gathering and reporting of news for radio stations, television stations, or systems engaged in the daily dissemination of news, or of representatives of news-gathering agencies engaged in the daily service of news to such radio stations, television stations, or systems.

5. Members of the families of correspondents are not entitled to the privileges of the galleries.

6. The Radio and Television Galleries shall be under the control of the Executive Committee of the Radio and Television Correspondents' Galleries, subject to the approval and supervision of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration.

Approved.

NEWT GINGRICH,
Speaker, House of Representatives.

TED STEVENS,
Chairman, Senate Committee on Rules and Administration.

RULES GOVERNING PERIODICAL PRESS GALLERIES

1. Persons eligible for admission to the Periodical Press Galleries must be bona fide resident correspondents of reputable standing, giving their chief attention to the gathering and reporting of news. They shall state in writing the names of their employers and their additional sources of earned income; and they shall declare that, while a member of the Galleries, they will not act as an agent in the prosecution of claims, and will not become engaged or assist, directly or indirectly, in any lobbying, promotion, advertising, or publicity activity intended to influence legislation or any other action of the Congress, nor any matter before any independent agency, or any department or other instrumentality of the Executive Branch; and that they will not act as an agent for, or be employed by the Federal, or any State, local or foreign government or representatives thereof; and that they will not, directly or indirectly, furnish special or "insider" information intended to influence prices or for the purpose of trading in any commodity or stock exchange; and that they will not become employed, directly or indirectly, by any stock exchange, board of trade or other organization or member thereof, or brokerage house or broker engaged in the buying and selling of any security or commodity. Applications shall be submitted to the Executive Committee of the Periodical Correspondents' Association and shall be authenticated in a manner satisfactory to the Executive Committee.

2. Applicants must be employed by periodicals that regularly publish a substantial volume of news material of either general, economic, industrial, technical, cultural or trade character. The periodical must require such Washington coverage on a continuing basis and must be owned and operated independently of any government, industry, institution, association, or lobbying organization. Applicants must also be employed by a periodical that is published for profit and is supported chiefly by advertising or by subscription, or by a periodical meeting the conditions in this paragraph but published by a nonprofit organization that, first, operates independently of any government, industry, or institution and, second, does not engage, directly or indirectly, in any lobbying or other activity intended to influence any matter before Congress or before any independent agency or any department or other instrumentality of the Executive Branch. House organs are not eligible.

3. Members of the families of correspondents are not entitled to the privileges of the Galleries.

4. The Executive Committee may issue temporary credentials permitting the privileges of the Galleries to individuals who meet the rules of eligibility but who may be on short term assignment or temporarily resident in Washington.

5. Under the authority of Rule 34 of the House of Representatives and of Rule 33 of the Senate, the Periodical Galleries shall be under the control of the Executive Committee, subject to the approval and supervision of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee, at its discretion, to report violations of the privileges of the Galleries to the Speaker or the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, and pending action thereon, the offending correspondent may be suspended. The Committee shall be elected at the start of each Congress by members of the Periodical Correspondents' Association, and shall consist of seven members with no more than one member from any one publishing organization. The Committee shall elect its own officers, and a majority of the Committee may fill vacancies on the Committee. The list in the Congressional Directory shall be a list only of members of the Periodical Correspondents' Association.

NEWT GINGRICH,
Speaker, House of Representatives.

TED STEVENS,
Chairman, Senate Committee on Rules and Administration.
